

DEAD AGAINST THE TRUSTS.

THE COURT OF APPEALS PROCEEDS IN THE SUGAR TRUST CASE.

It is a "Restatement of Death" on the North River Corporation for Joining the Committee. The Other Members Likely to be Put in the Same Position—How will the Trust Reorganize?

The Court of Appeals has handed down a decision affirming the judgment of dissolution against the North River Sugar Refining Company and declaring the Sugar Trust an unlawful combination.

Confusion arose about the result on the street yesterday because the Court sitting at Saratoga had also handed down a decision on a subordinate point in the litigation, and the news got here somewhat in this order:

- 1. The decision is adverse to the Sugar Trust.
2. But it is only on a minor point.
3. But there is another decision on the main issue which declares the trust illegal.

The price of the certificates varied slightly in accordance with these items, but there was no tumble. Exactly what plan the trustees have in hand for reorganizing the trust could not be learned yesterday. Those interested would see the opinion of the court before speaking.

Several conductors have just been appointed by the Pennsylvania Railroad in consequence of the extra train that has been put on between Jersey City and New York.

The case of Henry Hays was taken up yesterday by the Passenger Committee of the Hudson River Railroad. Mr. Hays, who is superintendent for the Immigrant Clearing House on the floor of the Bureau Office, was charged by several agents with receiving money for influencing immigrants to go over certain routes.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is now laying special stress on the attractions of the Atlantic Coast Line. Mr. Hays, who is superintendent for the Immigrant Clearing House on the floor of the Bureau Office, was charged by several agents with receiving money for influencing immigrants to go over certain routes.

The New York Central has put on a new train to St. Louis, via the Lake Shore and Erie, with buffet, sleeping, and dining cars leaving New York at 11:30 A. M. and arriving at St. Louis, Mo., at 11:30 P. M.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey's Sandy Hook route to Long Branch, Sea Bright, and other Jersey points is starting to run with nearly double the travel that it had last year at this time.

The West Shore has improved the facilities for reaching Lakes Mohawk and Minerva, and the train leaving very late at night.
